

Ohio Natural History Conference

Biodiversity & Technology: The Future of Natural History

February 27th, 2021
Virtual Event

Conference Schedule

(Presenters are given in bold)

- 9:00 Welcome and Announcements
- 9:15 Keynote Presentation
Hunt Brood X – Cicada Safari. Dr. Gene Kritsky –Dean of Behavioral and Natural Sciences Mount St. Joseph University
- 10:15 OBS Awards Presentation
Herbert Osborn Award – Dr. Scott Moody
Naturalist Award – John Pogacnik

Paper Session I:

- 10:30 How Ornithologists Use Technology to Study Bird Migration. Andy Jones, PhD. William A. and Nancy R. Klamm Chair and Curator of Ornithology, Cleveland Museum of Natural History
- 11:00 From bits to terabytes: How small community science contributions result in big conservation success. Matthew Shumar, Program Coordinator. Ohio Bird Conservation Initiative.
- 11:30 Using a Citizen Science App (Tree Health Survey) to Track Beech Leaf Disease. Dan Volk, Forest Health Project Coordinator. Cleveland Metroparks
- 12:00 Lunch Break
- 12:15 Virtual Poster Breakout Session, with authors in attendance

Paper Session II:

- 1:00 Emerging uses of Drones for Forest Health. Alistair Reynolds, Invasive Species Forester. Ohio Department of Natural Resources; Division of Forestry
- 1:30 Entomology field work during Covid: challenges and successes. Emily Franzen, Research Associate, Xavier University
- 2:00 Ohio Eastern Massasauga Rattlesnake Surveys: Tin, VES or AHDriFT Camera Traps? Evan D. Amber, Graduate Student. The Ohio State University
- 2:30 Restoration of Lake Sturgeon to the Maumee River. Matt Cross, Conservation Biologist. The Toledo Zoo.
- 3:00 Closing Remarks

- Note: Full program with abstracts available online at www.ohiobiologicalsurvey.org.

THANK YOU!

Ohio Natural History Conference Host & Sponsors

MOUNT ST. JOSEPH
UNIVERSITY®